Governance and Management

Citizens Advice Bournemouth Christchurch and Poole is a registered charity and company limited by guarantee. It is governed by its Articles of Association. A Trustee Board, as constituted in accordance with the provisions set out in the Articles of Association, is responsible for the overall governance of the company. The Trustee Board is responsible for appointing certain of its members to act in an individual capacity, as its representatives, either as directors of the company or as company secretary, in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Acts 2006. As a registered charity, the company is also required by the Charity Commissioners to appoint named individuals to act in a formal capacity as trustees of the charity, with duties and responsibilities as set out in charity law and regulations.

The maximum number of trustees is fifteen, and the minimum is three. Trustees are either, elected at the annual general meeting, nominated by member organisations or co-opted by the Trustee Board, providing that the total of co-opted and nominated trustees does not exceed one third of the total number of trustees. All elected trustees must retire from office at the third annual general meeting following the annual general meeting at which they were elected but may be re-elected. All nominated or co-opted trustees must retire from office at the third annual general meeting following the ordinary meeting of the Trustee Board at which they were appointed but may be re-elected.

The Trustee Board determines the pay and remuneration of key management personnel and staff based on the pay for roles in comparable organisations, the general rate of inflation and affordability. The charity promotes equal pay for work of equal value irrespective of gender or other personal factors.

Trustee Recruitment and Training

Trustees are recruited from member organisations and/or for the specific skills that they can bring to the Charity. There is a trustee induction process and new trustees visit Citizens Advice Bournemouth Christchurch and Poole enabling them to engage in and fully understand the operational workings of the charity. New trustees undertake relevant training in relation to the Citizens Advice Bournemouth Christchurch and Poole affairs, operations and duties of a trustee. Included in the ongoing training programs, are visits to the offices ensuring they engage regularly with the Project and Core Delivery teams.

Principal risks and uncertainties

The Trustee Board actively review on a regular basis, the risks to which the charity is exposed. The major risks being strategic, compliance, financial, operational and market/environmental risks. A Risk Register for the charity has been agreed by the Board; this defines the risks to the organisation, their likelihood, their effect and mitigation plans. The Trustees are satisfied that systems have been established to enable regular reports to be produced so that they can monitor such risks and, where necessary, steps can be taken to mitigate exposure thereto.

The principal risk is the uncertainty of future funding. The management team continue to look for new funding streams and opportunities to collaborate with others to develop new projects. Ongoing funding applications are monitored closely by the Trustees together with the accompanying staff levels so as to maintain sufficient reserves to meet the obligations of the organisation in the event that no future funding is secured. Further monitoring of cashflow against budgets is undertaken to ensure that there is adequate cash flow to meet day to day running costs.

Another material risk is the loss of staffing within the key roles of the charity. To mitigate this risk, roles and skills are shared within the team and staff development/training provided to develop the team's skills. Where we have found shortages, this has been addressed by vacancies being fulfilled internally or via the assistance of volunteers.

Public Benefit

The Trustees have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives and in planning its future activities. They do not consider that the charity's activities include any potential detriment or harm or convey any significant incidental private benefit.

The balance carried forward on the General Fund represents unrestricted funds that are freely available for the general objectives of the charity. Designated funds comprise unrestricted funds that have been set aside by the Trustees for a particular purpose. The designated Core Continuity Fund has been set by the Trustees at a level equivalent to 3 months' normal operating expenditure which would enable the closure costs of the charity to be met. #### Investments Policy

The charity does not invest its funds. Cash funds held by the charity that exceed its immediate requirements to finance its charitable activities are held in savings accounts with Lloyds Bank plc, Bath Building Society, United Trust Bank, Cambridge and Counties Bank and Redwood Bank.

Research, Campaigns and Communications

Conducting research and undertaking campaigns is essential for the ongoing improvement of services that benefit the lives of Bournemouth Christchurch and Poole residents. Our advisors help clients with the problems that they face at time critical points. Conducting research and engaging in campaign activities allows us to take this one step further. Using the evidence collected, trends can be recognised that allows us to tackle clients' problems at the root cause and work in a way that is preventative. This is beneficial in terms of our own time and resources, but also allows us to make the conurbation of Bournemouth, Christchurch and Poole a fairer and more inclusive community. A strong and established research and campaign strategy can therefore improve lives.

As one of our core aims, the Trustee Board has a Research, Campaigns and Communications committee, which includes three Trustees with responsibility for Research and Campaigns, and whose task it is to raise the level and impact of the work undertaken by Citizens Advice Bournemouth Christchurch and Poole and maintain Trustee Board input into this important aspect of our work. In 2022/2023 our research and campaign work continued to be influenced by the emerging cost of living crisis, such as the affordability of energy, and the increasing costs related to affordable food access.

During the year, the predominant issues presented by clients were related to financial insecurity including access to charitable grants and access to food alongside support with access to benefits.

Throughout the year a number of research and campaign activities were undertaken to highlight the struggles faced by residents of Bournemouth, Christchurch and Poole.

Funding

The charity receives funding from a variety of public and private bodies, usually to cover the Charity's delivery costs for commitments to provide specific advice services to the public locally. The largest funding body during the financial year was the Bournemouth, Christchurch and Poole (BCP) local authority, for the provision of general advice to the public on diverse matters, including money management and employment matters. The Charity also administered distribution of central government cost of living support funding on behalf of BCP Council. Other significant funders included J. P. Morgan for the provision of debt management advice. In 2021/22, the pattern of funding was similar to 2022/23, with the largest funders being BCP Council and

J. P. Morgan

Post the closure of the 2022/23 financial year, BCP Council announced that it intended to openly tender for the provision of general and financial wellbeing advice services, effective from September 2023 and running until April 2028. Part of the conditions of the tender required a material discount on current funding levels. The Charity has participated in the tender and is hopeful of success. Management is developing operating plans for both success or failure in winning the tender and the Board is confident that either outcome can be absorbed by the Charity. Also post closure of the 2022/23 financial year, the charity agreed a material tranche of additional funding from J.P. Morgan for the provision of debt advice.

Trustees' Responsibilities

The Trustees (who are also directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under company law the trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently.
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice) 2019 (FRS102).
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed in the financial statements.
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

As far as the Trustees are aware:

- there is no relevant audit information of which the charitable company's auditor is unaware.
- and the Trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the auditor is aware of that information.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Signed on behalf of the board of Trustees:

The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 March 2023, and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charitable company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate. Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue. Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the trustees with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The other information comprises the information included in the Trustees annual report, other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Trustees are responsible for the other information contained within the Trustees report. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. Our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the course of the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether this gives rise to a material misstatement in the financial statements themselves. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinions on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the Trustees' report (incorporating the Directors' report) for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the Directors' report has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the charitable company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the Directors' Report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received;
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns;
- certain disclosures of Directors' remuneration specified by law are not made;
- · we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit
- the Trustees were not entitled to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the small companies' regime and take advantage of the small companies' exemptions in preparing the Directors' report and from the requirement to prepare a strategic report.

Responsibilities of Trustees

As explained more fully in the Trustees' responsibilities statement set out on page 11 the Trustees (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Trustees are responsible for assessing the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material mis-statement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below:

- An understanding of the legal and regulatory framework the charitable company operates in was obtained through discussions with the Trustees and other management in addition to our general sector experience. The most significant laws and regulations identified, being those that have a direct effect on material amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, are the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice (FRS 102) issued in October 2019,
  FRS 102, Companies Act 2006, Charities Act 2011 and HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) Tax Legislation.
- We also considered other laws and regulations that do not have a direct effect on the financial statements but compliance with which may be fundamental to the company's ability to operate, or to avoid material penalty. These included the requirements of the national citizens advice regulations, and employment law.
- We evaluated management's incentives and opportunities for fraudulent manipulation of the financial statements (including the risk of override of controls) and determined that the principal risks related to the fraudulent financial reporting, in particular of grant funding received and allocation of central costs to restricted funds.

- Audit procedures were performed by the engagement team to:
  - obtain sufficient evidence regarding compliance. These procedures include making enquiries to Trustees and other management in addition to the inspection of applicable regulatory and legal correspondence. Financial statement disclosures were reviewed and tested to supporting documentation:
  - identify and assess the design effectiveness of controls management has put in place to prevent and detect fraud. The company's systems and controls were documented and confirmed;
  - challenge the assumptions and judgments made by management in its significant accounting estimates and
  - identify and test journal entries, in particular any journal entries posted with unusual account combinations:
  - assess the extent of compliance with the relevant laws and regulations.
- We have properly planned and performed the audit in accordance with auditing standards and all members of the engagement team have the appropriate competence and capabilities to identify or recognise non-compliance with laws and regulations. However, due to the inherent limitations of an audit, there is a risk that we will not detect all irregularities, including those leading to a material misstatement in the financial statements or non-compliance with regulation. This risk increases the more that compliance with a law or regulation is removed from the events and transactions reflected in the financial statements, as we will be less likely to become aware of instances of non-compliance. The risk is also greater regarding irregularities occurring due to fraud rather than error, as fraud involves intentional concealment, forgery, collusion, omission or misrepresentation.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs (UK), we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the charitable company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the trustees.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Trustees use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the charitable company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation (i.e., gives a true and fair view).

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Use of our report

1 Summary of significant accounting policies

(a) General information and basis of preparation

Citizens Advice Bournemouth, Christchurch and Poole is a private company limited by guarantee in England and Wales. In the event of the charity being wound up, the liability in respect of the guarantee is limited to £1 per member of the charity. The address of the registered office is given in the charity information on page 3 of these financial statements. The nature of the charity's operations and principal activities are set out in the Trustees' Annual Report.

The charity constitutes a public benefit entity as defined by FRS 102. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland issued in October 2019, the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102), the Companies Act 2006 and UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

The financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis under the historical cost convention, modified to include certain items at fair value. The financial statements are presented in sterling which is the functional currency of the charity.

The significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all years presented unless otherwise stated.

(b) Funds

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity and which have not been designated for other purposes.

Designated funds comprise unrestricted funds that have been set aside by the trustees for particular purposes. The aim and use of each designated fund is set out in the Trustees' Annual Report.

Restricted funds are funds which are to be used in accordance with specific restrictions imposed by donors or which have been raised by the charity for particular purposes. The cost of raising and administering such funds are charged against the specific fund. The aim and use of each restricted fund is set out in the Trustees' Annual Report.

(c) Income recognition

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when the charity is legally entitled to the income after any performance conditions have been met, the amount can be measured reliably and it is probable that the income will be received.

For donations to be recognised the charity will have been notified of the amounts and the settlement date in writing. If there are conditions attached to the donation and this requires a level of performance before entitlement can be obtained, then income is deferred until those conditions are fully met or the fulfilment of those conditions is within the control of the charity and it is probable that they will be fulfilled.

Donated facilities are recognised in income at their fair value when their economic benefit is probable, it can be measured reliably and the charity has control over the item. Fair value is determined on the basis of the value of the gift to the charity. For example, the amount the charity would be willing to pay in the open market for such facilities and services. A corresponding amount is recognised in expenditure.

No amount is included in the financial statements for volunteer time in line with the SORP. Further detail is given in the Trustees' Annual Report.

Income recognition (continued)

Income from government and other grants are recognised at fair value when the charity has entitlement after any performance conditions have been met, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably. If entitlement is not met, then these amounts are deferred.

(d) Expenditure recognition

All expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs related to the category. Expenditure is recognised where there is a legal or constructive obligation to make payments to third parties, it is probable that the settlement will be required, and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably.

Irrecoverable VAT is charged as an expense against the activity for which expenditure arose.

Grants payable to third parties are within the charitable objectives. Where unconditional grants are offered, this is accrued as soon as the recipient is notified of the grant, as this gives rise to a reasonable expectation that the recipient will receive the grants. Where grants are conditional relating to performance then the grant is only accrued when any unfulfilled conditions are outside of the control of the charity.

(e) Support costs allocation

Support costs are those that assist the work of the charity but do not directly represent charitable activities and include expenditure on governance, general administration, finance, human resources, and information technology. They are incurred directly in support of expenditure on the objects of the charity and include project management carried out centrally. The support costs are apportioned between activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

The analysis of these costs is set out in note 7.

(f) Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets costing more than £5,000 are capitalised at cost less accumulated depreciation. Cost includes costs directly attributable to making the asset capable of operating as intended.

Depreciation is provided on all tangible fixed assets, at rates calculated to write off the cost, less estimated residual value, of each asset on a systematic basis over its expected useful life as follows:

Computer hardware and software

Fixtures and fittings

Motor vehicles

Straight line over 5 years

Straight line over 5 years

(g) Debtors and creditors receivable / payable within one year

Debtors and creditors with no stated interest rate and receivable or payable within one year are recorded at transaction price. Any losses arising from impairment are recognised in expenditure.

(h) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks and other short term liquid investments with original maturities of one month or less.

(i) Financial instruments

The Charity only has financial assets and liabilities of a kind that qualify as basic financial instruments. Basic financial instruments are initially recognised at transaction value and subsequently remeasured at their settlement value with the exception of loans which are subsequently measured at the carrying value plus accrued interest less repayments. The financing charge to expenditure is at a consistent rate using the effective interest method.

(j) Leases

Rentals payable under operating leases are charged to the SoFA on a straight line basis over the period of the lease.

(k) Employee benefits

Other than those arising from the Covid-19 pandemic the cost of any untaken holiday entitlement is not recognised.

Termination benefits are recognised immediately as an expense when the charity is demonstrably committed to terminate the employment of an employee or to provide termination benefits.

(I) Retirement benefits

The charity operates a defined contribution scheme for the benefit of its employees. Contributions are expensed as they become payable.

(m) Tax

The charity is an exempt charity within the meaning of schedule 3 of the Charities Act 2011 and is considered to pass the tests set out in Paragraph 1 Schedule 6 Finance Act 2010 and therefore it meets the definition of a charitable company for UK corporation tax purposes.

(n) Going concern

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis as the trustees believe that no material uncertainties exist. The trustees have considered the level of funds held and the expected level of income and expenditure for 12 months from authorising these financial statements. The budgeted income and expenditure are sufficient with the level of reserves for the charity to be able to continue as a going concern.

(o) Judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

In preparing the financial statements, the Trustees are required to make estimates and assumptions which affect reported income, expenses, assets and liabilities together with the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. The estimates and underlying assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis.

In the view of the Trustees, there are no significant areas of key judgement or estimation uncertainty that are likely to result in a material adjustment in the next financial year.
